This is volume 5 in the No Man's Land story arc in the Batman universe. I highly recommend getting this if you have the OLD versions and need the 5th volume to complete your collection. The story wraps up in this graphic novel and I find this arc to be rather enjoyable. I would also recommend the novelization of this which you can also find on Amazon.

It's the bridge between the plague attack and the earthquake in Gotham, to when Gotham becomes No Man's Land. It's not necessary to read this arc, because there isn't a whole lot in it that advances the plot in a meaningful way. It's not very interesting, and the art is quite terrible in parts and uninspired in others. But it's also not repulsive.
