Eating Fire, is actually three collections of poems; Poems 1965-1975, Poems 1976-1886 and Morning in the Burned House. I own all three independently, but this is the book, the collection, I drag around with me in my bag. These are the poems I read when I feel dry, when I am not sure what a poet's voice sounds like, or what a poem looks like.
