In response to market feedback, ESSENTIALS OF MARKETING RESEARCH, 4th, was developed directly from the ninth edition of Barry J. Babin and William Zikmund's best-selling Exploring Marketing Research text. ESSENTIALS OF MARKETING RESEARCH focuses on students as managers, not practitioners, of marketing research. It addresses the design, collection, analysis, and reporting of marketing research data relevant to a firm's current and future needs, but it is designed specifically for instructors who prefer a more concise introduction to marketing research topics. Important Notice: Media content referenced within the product description or the product text may not be available in the ebook version.

The organization of this title follows the logic of the marketing research process. The book begins by discussing the scope of marketing research, and provides an overview of problem definition and the marketing research process.

Marketing Research, 5e equips students with the knowledge and skills required to successfully undertake marketing research. Combining a solid theoretical foundation with a practical, step-by-step approach, the marketing research process is explored through a learning model that is constantly reinforced throughout the text. Using local and international examples, data sets and case studies to explain traditional marketing research methods, Marketing Research also examines new theories and techniques. To reflect emerging industry practices, each stage of research reporting is detailed, as well as a range of presentation methodologies. For analysing data, the text covers both SPSS and Excel outputs. This text is indispensable for students studying marketing research in any business or marketing course.
