Overview. This subject used to be called Biology before the new curriculum was introduced in 2006.

The aim of this department is to encourage students to become aware of life around us, the interactions which occur in the environment, problems facing bio-diversity and life on earth, the working of the human body and most importantly, the appreciation of life as well as nurturing
