In 2011 Macmillan published Rebecca's debut solo project, the hugely accomplished Missing Mummy which approached the subject of child bereavement with great honesty, sensitivity and integrity. Lunchtime is Rebecca's second solo picture book, and although wholly different in subject matter from her first, features the same stunning illustration style and child-friendly voice.

-Mystery-Grades: 1-3-"The Missing Mummy," is just one of the many mystery books that make up this series. In this story, a mummy goes missing from the tomb, and it is the children's job to try and find it. I really enjoyed the detectives being children, so that the younger students can relate and maybe even imagine themselves being detectives too!
