A classics girl-novel by Eleanor H. Porter (1868-1920) from 1913. I've been listening to this fantastic $1 audiobook (5:40 hrs - very well) narrated by Rebecca Burns these two last day. Oddly enough, I think I might like this young-girl book even more now as an grownup than as a girl long ago.

~~LibriVox~~

Pollyanna is a fun loving book that features a bubbly young girl of ten who goes to live with her elderly aunt after her father's death. Their characters contrast as soon as Pollyanna moves in, even though the young girl is a spirited, kind creature; however, her aunt is spinsterly creature with a crabby attitude and refuses to accept the girl.
