Psychology of Criminal Behaviour: A Canadian Perspective ...

Causes of criminal behavior. The reasons behind criminal behavior can vary a lot in each particular case, but still they can be grouped in two main categories – genetics and environment. When in the mid 19 th century the question about the causes of criminal behavior was raised, a lot of psychologists were insisting that the only reason is genetics. They even considered that a person's inclination to criminal could be measured according to the parents mental condition, i.e. if they had ...
