Amidst the uncertain…never before times of Corona Infection…one of its kind nationwide lockdown and migration of lakhs of labourers…there lie two heartwarming love stories of Rohan and Kavita….Archana and Hari. Rohan married to Chetna, meets her school crush Kavita after about two decades in the most unromantic place and condition…being on a bed of Safdarjung Hospital's COVID care isolation center. Archana married to Satender, meets Hari… in a filthy COVID shelter camp and then on a crowded Shramik Special train to Bihar. Will their love story blossom and end up in a fairy tale of 'lived happily ever after' or will fizzle out, unlike the COVID-19 scare… Witness two beautiful love stories…two-act of sacrifice…in times of glorious uncertainty.

" Life comes with its ups and downs" No one can predict the future, and that sheer unpredictability is the essence of this novel. This novel takes you on a journey of love, heartbreak, and betrayal. But the most important message that this novel conveys is, how to grow. Experience makes everyone brighter and shinier. The main character of this novel has had his fair share of such life-changing experiences. He is struggling to attain stability in his life. However, his circumstances get the best of him, and all his efforts to bring balance to his life become futile. In pursuit of stability and happiness, he tries to change himself for the better. Soon things start to look up, and hence begins his new life.

A sensitive, humorous novel on Hindu-Muslim relations, set in post-Independence India, by an eminent Hindi writer.

We can each radiate unconditional love. We don't even need to create it – we are love. But the flow of love is blocked in moments of hurt, blame, anger, criticism, competition or insecurity. These emotions have dominated our emotional space, and hardly enable us to feel our own love. So today, we rely on someone else to love us. This book teaches us to think right, enable self-love, feel it and extend it to other people. The central message here is that love is not 'out there', but within us. A spectrum of emotions like attachment, expectations, hurt, worry, stress, fear or anger, which we use in the pretext of love, are analysed. The conversations also explore the fact that the parent-child relationship is not challenging – It does not need to be. As you free yourself from judgments and expectations, as you start thinking right for people, and as you accept people for who they are, you become a Radiator of unconditional love. You are one decision away from vibrating at a frequency of love … by not needing love or giving love – but just by being love.

Everything you wanted to know about sex and love in Islam, but were hesitant to ask about: polygamy, contraception allowed by Sharia, oral and group sex, homosexual marriages and also the relationship with jinns, masturbation and mysteries of martial relations - all that is allowed and all that is prohibited in sexual relations in this noble and pure religion. Many people both in the West and Russia continue to have a mistaken illusion that love, sex and variability of relations between man and woman are either suppressed in Islam or in contrary exceed all norms of decency. the book is an insight into this matter. The Muslim man is perceived as an ideal type of an always ready sexual partner. Love and Sex in Islam lifts the veil covering the delicate theme, in which the phenomena seeming incompatible turn out to be good neighbors.

Insightful and heart-warming, this classic book is written for those who seek to know God better. It unfolds life-impacting, biblical truths and has been called a "soul-stirring celebration of the pleasures of knowing God."

The Lal Kitab, a rare book in urdu, was popular in north-west India, Pakistan, Iran and many other countries. This English version has added new dimensions to make it more lucid and easier to understand.
